COVER - "I LOVE BULLDOG DAY"

"I Love Bulldog Day" was celebrated at Old Rochester Regional High School this past weekend with several sporting events taking place Friday, Saturday and Monday and highlighted by a parade of floats at half-time festivities of the ORR-Seekonk football game on Saturday and a Homecoming Dance Saturday night.

Judges for the floats were Richard Threlfall, Barbara Macy, Richard Mello and Patricia Mello. Second place went to the Junior Class float which had a Bulldog perched atop a Roman chariot being brought onto the field by Roman gladiators. The Freshman class float depicted a large Bulldog coming through the goalpost to victory. Despite this enthusiastic support, Seekonk was the victor by a score of 45 to 0.

At the homecoming dance Scott Purtell, a Freshman, and Gretchen Hamer, a Sophomore, were named King and Queen. Other candidates for King and Queen were Kenneth Clarke and Margaret Lowe, seniors; Christopher Douglass and Suzanne Normand, juniors; Paul Tinkham, sophomore; and Louise Lalli, freshman.

Mattapoisett Seniors

SENIORS TO INSTALL OFFICERS

The annual installation of officers of the Mattapoisett Seniors' Club on Thursday, November 9, in St. Anthony's Hall, will be preceded by a potluck luncheon at 12:30 P.M.

The luncheon committee includes Jane Welch, Helene Grant, Betty Heuberger and Lillian Wood.

Main dishes are needed, according to Mrs. Welch, general chairperson.

Members planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Welch at 758-2434 or Mrs. "Genie" Perry at 758-4644 to indicate what will be their contributions to the menu.

Members are reminded to notify, in good time, Addie Santos of the Nutrition Program if the potluck luncheon conflicts with their attendance at the noon meal in Legion Hall.

Joseph F. Sylvia will be the installing officer. To be commissioned for another term are Joseph C. Perry, president; Donald T. Welch, vice president; Mrs. Mary Paiva, secretary; and Mrs. Ethel Gorun, treasurer. Joseph F. Sylvia, Emily Perry and Sophie Sterling complete the club's executive board.

Art Center

PEWTER, POTTER AND PHOTOGRAPHY

Pewter, pottery and photography will be on display at the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center during the month of November. Christopher Slater, Bill Spark and Deborah Hynes are contributing artists to this three-man show. The members of the Marion Art Center will have an opportunity to meet these talented young craftsmen at the opening on Friday, November 3rd, 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Christopher B. Slater, a resident of Bridgewater, has been creating original works in pewter for the past ten years. He is a teacher of pewtersmithing and is a member of many craft guilds. His exhibitions include fairs and juried shows in Boston, Brockton, Connecticut and many local galleries. An innovative craftsman, Slater makes up his own designs for most of the objects he creates and uses the pure metal which results in a luminous shine in uncluttered compositions.

liever in functional ware, Bill works with stoneware clay and produces a complete line of serving pieces along with culinary complements from butter dishes to tea sets and casseroles. After taking every available course in ceramics at the University of Vermont, Bill Spark became a partner with Geoff Smith, a well-known Vermont potter. Now, on his own, Spark has a working and teaching studio in his home in Mattapoisett. He has exhibited in Boston and Provincetown and looks forward to his debut at the Marion Art Center. Signing his work with the butt end of a scallop shell, "because it leaves an imprint," Bill Spark hopes his work will also leave an impression on the people who see, buy and use his functional ware.

Deborah Hynes, photographer, is not a newcomer to this area. Currently teaching photography at Tabor Academy, Debby has exhibited in several group shows, and her freelance business is well known. A graduate of New England College, she also studied at U. N.H. and S.M.U. Ms. Hynes currently resides in Mattapoisett where she

SCOUT FUND RAISING PROGRAM

Boy Scout Troop 53 launched their Fall fund raising program as the scouts have started their door-to-door sales program with the Kit of Fortune. The Kit contains such items as a crystal vase, wrapping paper, a memo board, a flashlight, candles, notepaper, a teddy bear necklace, gift tags and a sewing kit which may be purchased individually. Delivery is promised well in advance of Christmas. The scouts would appreciate a warm reception as they make their rounds since the proceeds from the sale will be used to help support their pending Spring trip to Washington, D.C.

Board of Health will sponsor a flu clinic for seniors of Mattapoisett 59 and older. The vaccine can also be given to those in town 26 and older with chronic heart, lung or kidney disease and diabetes.

The District Nurses will hold this clinic from 1:00 to 4:00 P.M. in the Legion Hall on Depot Street.

There will be a small fee for this clinic.

Mattapoisett Library

Captain Kangaroo's "Picturepages" will be available at the library through week "J". After that parents can obtain their own "Picturepages" by sending a postcard (with your name, address, and ZIP) to "Picturepages", P.O. Box 93, Pittsburgh, PA. 15230. Please send your postcard soon if you want your children to receive "Picturepages" without interruption. We are told that it takes several weeks to process and order.

There will be a Thanksgiving story hour and craft session on Saturday, November 18, from 1-2 P.M. for children from 4-6 years old. Children who want to take part must sign up for it by Wednesday, November 15.

November 7th is election day in Massachusetts. If you are interested in learning more information about offices to be filled or questions on the ballot we have several pamphlets that may interest you. We also have

Quote:

"The fight against inflation becomes nearly impossible when special interest groups are successful." President Jimmy Carter

In this country, special interest groups are the most successful part of the population thanks to the cooperation of politicians who have legislated the full power of the United States to reinforce these groups' demands.

Look into the eyes of Jimmy Carter. If he is sincere in presenting this program of voluntary restraint, he is naive beyond belief; if not, he expects to deceive the American people.

You can not set up a group with unbridled power and then say, "please don't use it. Just rip off 7% more per year." Even if it did work, Jimmy's plan compounds to just under 100% (96%) in only 10 years. Our weak and shaky dollar would be worth 50¢. In 20 years, bring a wheelbarrow full to the super market.

This is controlling inflation?

Behind these worried eyes of Jimmy Carter, we think, is the helpless realization that government workers are leading inflation because they were permitted to join a specia interest group to make increasing demands each year.

That group dedicated solely to more money, more pensions, more fringe benefits makes inflation certain because government work produces no revenue. Any group licensed to make demands of the United States is more powerful than the federal system itself. Unless this mistake can be corrected, this power over the whole population will destroy our economic system and the political system will go down. This is no theory. It happened before in modern his-

GOALTENDER BETH BRENNAN HAS AUTHORED EIGHT SHUTOUTS IN TEN STARTS, LEADING STANG FIELD HOCKEY TO THEIR SECOND CONSECUTIVE LEAGUE CROWN. THE MATTAPOISETT SOPHOMORE WILL LEAD THE SPARTANETTES INTO STATE COMPETITION NEXT WEEK.

Stang Star

MATTAPOISETT'S BRENNAN LEADS STANG

A familiar sport's adage states, "If THEY never SCORE, YOU will never LOSE".

Obviously true, and obviously apropos of the Bishop Stang High School field hockey team and their outstanding goaltender Beth Brennan.

The talented Sophomore has authored eight shutouts in ten starts directing the defending South Section State Champs towards another playoff berth.

Voted last year's outstanding JV player, Brennan has taken to her new role like a duck takes to water. When quizzed about her shutout total, she replied modestly, "Just lucky, I guess. I feel a lot more pressure this year," she added, "but our defense has helped me a lot."

Her teammates are quick to point out that Beth is the best at her position in the league. Area mentors agree. Recently, coaches of four schools representing Massachusetts in a match between the Bay Staters and Rhode Island selected Miss Brennan as the outstanding goalie in the competition.

pleased with Brennan's performance. "Beth combines athletic talent with strong determination. Add the fact she's only a Sophomore and you can see that she has great potential. Unlimited in fact. She's definitely a prime reason we're doing so well."

The Spartanettes are currently 10-1-1 and have clinched the league championship for the second year in a row.

Beth's talent is not limited to the athletic field. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan completed her initial year at the North Dartmouth school ranked near the top of her class.

"I'm so anxious for the state tourney to begin," Beth concluded. And so are the rest of the Spartan fans.

"Burt and I"

Marshall Dodge, famed humorist from Maine, will be sharing his "Bert and I" stories with the Tabor community on Friday evening, November 10th, at 7:30 in Hoyt Hall.

When Dodge tells stories like "The Casket with the Centerboard" or "Chester Coombs First Born", you can count on more than a few split sides. The legendary "I" of the "Bert and I" pair, Dodge continues to bring his brilliant Down East wit to audiences throughout the country.

A native New Yorker, Marshall Dodge became fascinated with the unique Maine sense of humor during his school years in New Hampshire. His story-telling pastime matured in his senior year at Yale where he met and combined repertoires with fellow raconteur Robert Bryan. The records which they made jointly brought them world-wide recognition.

Today Marshall Dodge continues to pursue a career as humorist. He has participated in major folk festivals, conceived and produced the 1977 Maine Festival of the Arts, written several books, and written and performed in numerous educational T.V. shows.

The public is cordially invited to attend "An Evening With Bert and I". Tickets will be available at the door.

FIELD WALK

Where do animals go in the winter? Many wild animals living right in this area have cleverly designed burrows, nests, or hideouts, some right under our feet, or in plain view, though we never see them. This Saturday's (November 4th) field walk offers the opportunity for all ages to investigate the clues and traces that lead to animal homes or habitats and learn why the animals choose to live there. The morning walk is free and starts at 10:00 A.M. at the Museum Outdoors.

SATURDAY PROGRAM

Matt Domingos, a young member of the Children's Museum who has taken part in many programs here throughout the summer, will share his knowledge with us on the subject of reptiles and amphibians. The program is offered to ages 5 and up and will explore the unusual world of the cold-blooded species with some of Matt's own collection. Anyone interested is welcome to bring a specimen of his own to add to the appreciation of the subject. A small admission is charged non-members. The program starts at 2:00 P.M. this Saturday, November 4th, in the Russells Mills Center.

ORR GRIDIRON CLUB

There will be a meeting of the ORR Gridiron Club Wednesday, November 1st, at 7:30 P.M. in the Junior High School Cafeteria.

ANNUAL MEETING LOFT SCHOOL

The annual meeting of the Loft School of Marion was held on October 18.

Mrs. Margot Warner of Marion was elected president, succeeding Mrs. Daune Smith of Mattapoisett, who will remain on the board as advisor.

Other members elected to the board were: Kathleen Wood, Mattapoisett, vice president; Sue Hamel, Wareham, recording secretary; Gail Foster, Wareham, corresponding secretary; Merry Conway, Marion, treasurer. Serving on the board as appointed members are: Betty Cheney, Marion, supplies; Carol Houdelette, Marion, grounds and building; Pat Hunt, Mattapoisett, publicity.

The Loft School is an independent, cooperative nursery school with classes for both three and four year old children from the Mattapoisett, Marion, Wareham and Rochester area. A rotating parent-helper program enables parents to participate in their child's learning experience.

Director-teacher of the Loft School is Barbara Maddocks. Other staff members include Jane Taylor, Joan Healy and Joyce West.

Christmas Bazaar

The annual Christmas Bazaar, co-sponsored by Our Lady's Sodality of Sts. Martha and Mary Church, Lakeville and St. Rose of Lima Church, Rochester, will be held at Sts. Martha and Mary Church, Routes 18 and 105, Lakeville, on Friday, November 3, from 6 to 10 P.M. and Saturday, November 4, from 10-4 and 6-7:30 P.M.

There comes a time in a man's life, if he's a man of principle, when he must make a choice. Biff MacLean made that choice. The choice to Represent YOU.

As Biff MacLean progressed in the hierarchy of the Massachusetts House, many times his position as a member of the leadership came into conflict with the interests of his district . . . into conflict with the primary goal he established when first elected: to represent the people of his district.

So Biff made the choice.

When the legislature goes back into session this coming year, Biff MacLean will be going back as a representative — not as a committee chairman or part of the leadership.

Biff made that choice for us — for you and me — because we are his primary concern.

Let's do our part for him. Let's send him back with a message. That we believe in him. That we support him. That we honor a man of principle.

Let's send him back with the biggest vote he's ever received.

"Thanks, Biff. We appreciate what you've done, and we're behind you 100%."

of Lakeville's 125 years will be depicted in various ways, such as exhibits by the Historical Society and continuous tapes of Lakeville's history.

Each booth will represent a different period in Lakeville's past, and Evelyn Norris, well-known for her vast knowledge of Lakeville's history, will be the technical advisor.

The chairman for the bazaar is Mrs. James Pawelczyk. Mrs. Kevin St. George will be in charge of gifts, plants and woodcraft; Mrs. Evelyn Bissonette, the proprietor of the Bakery and General Store; Mrs. James Mahoney will manage the Christmas Booth, featuring Christmas wreaths and ornaments. Mrs. Edward Bresnahan will have items to please all ages at the Handicraft Booth.

The Restaurant, over which Mrs. Ronald Dunham will preside, will have food available all during the bazaar, and supper will be served on both evenings. Children will be welcomed by Mrs. James Pawelczyk at their own private booth, where grownups may not shop. A new feature nearby will be the Post Office where letters to Santa may be mailed.

Additional attractions are the pickle barrel, Indians in their customary attire, and music to make your shopping a pleasant, relaxing experience.

"PARENTS DIALOGUE GROUP"

Mr. Anthony M. Iacozza, Jr., Superior Court Probation Officer for the Counties of Bristol, Barnstable, Dukes and Nantucket, will lead a "Parents Dialogue Group" at the Marion Center for Human Services, 335 Wareham Road, Marion, every Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 P.M. The informal sessions will center around the theme of family awareness, dealing with problems that may arise in the home between parents and children, and will also serve as a resource to both the needs of parent and child. Among the issues to be examined and discussed will be the rising use of alcohol and drugs among youth, the role of education in preparing youth for the adult world and what to do when the parent-child relationship begins to break down.

Mr. Iacozza has had extensive experience in the field of juvenile behavior. A

LAMAZE CLASSES AT TOBEY

Throughout the year Tobey Hospital has offered a full complement of classes for childbirth education. At present, the hospital is presenting a series of Parent Education Classes open to expectant parents at no cost. These classes, presented four times each year, stress prenatal care of the mother, development of the fetus, labor, birth, and care of the newborn.

For those interested in "total prepared childbirth" there is another series of La-maze classes starting on Wednesday evening, November 1, at 7:00 P.M. in the Tobey Cafeteria. These classes which will be taught by Mrs. Donna Sassone, RN, a certified Lamaze instructor, do not concentrate on "natural childbirth", but rather explore the various options of delivery available to parents. The Lamaze method reinforces the concept of relaxation, exercise, and breathing for a physically and psychologically fit mother. For those expecting Caesarean births there will be instruction of the procedures used before, during, and after the birth so that husbands may participate in the total experience with their wives.

These classes which begin on November 1, will continue on November 8, 15, 22, 29 and December 6. There is a fee for the Lamaze classes. For further information call Mrs. Sassone at 759-3874.

Tournament Bridge

The following bridge players having won the required Master Points in Tournament Bridge competition while playing with many different bridge partners, have been advanced in rank by the American Contract Bridge League, as follows: Fanny Freedman, advanced to National Master; Catherine Bacon, advanced to Master bridge player; and Gladys Goldberg, advanced to master bridge player.

The next objective of Mrs. Freedman is Senior Master status while Mrs. Bacon and Mrs. Goldberg will be vying for National Master status on their way to Life Master.

Winners in the regular weekly bridge tournaments held last week at the Southworth Library, South Dartmouth, are announced.

Monday evening, October 23, using the scrambled Mitchell bridge movement, George Leslie and Robert D'Anjou were first; Helen Presnol and Alice Lipsett, second; Mary Morse and James Harris, third; Doris Liberty and Janice Morris, fourth; Emma Jaslow and Ruth Sweetser, fifth.

Wednesday morning the Section A winners in the North-South direction were Gladys Hall and Doris Greenwood, first; Isabel Titus and Velma Marshall, second; Mrs.

ENROLLED AT WENTWORTH

Donald W. Bailey, Grandview Avenue, Mattapoisett, is enrolled at Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston for the 1978-1979 academic year, Dr. Edward T. Kirkpatrick, Wentworth president, announced.

More than 2,000 full-time day students registered for the industrial and engineering technology programs. Wentworth enables a student to start on the path of higher education at a point keyed to his scholastic preparation and achievements, and gears him to attain the limits of his potential.

An Associate in Engineering degree is granted to students completing the two-year engineering technology program and an Associate in Applied Science degree to students in the two-year industrial technology courses. Wentworth also conducts a certificate program in industrial technology. Graduates of the engineering technology programs may advance to the Bachelor of Science in Engineering Technology degree program, where four of the courses are conducted on a cooperative work-study basis.

SMART SHOPPER BADGE-NEW FOR SCOUTS

After the Spring Sale of Girl Scout cookies was evaluated, the Board of Directors of the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council, a member agency of the United Way, approved a new badge to increase the learning experience of each Girl Scout. The Smart Shopper Badge enables Girl Scouts to extend their experience in selling to include budgeting and money management and for older girls, it is broadened to include consumerism.

The new badge is available to Brownies and Juniors and has been extended to Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts as a Merchandising Aide Project. Some of the requirements for the Smart Shopper Badge are: monitoring TV commercials; designing a newspaper or magazine advertisement or a poster, or tape a commercial to tell how the Girl Scout cookie sale supports Girl Scouting; comparison shopping by purchasing other brands of cookies; planning a troop event (camping, or a day trip, or a service project) and computing the costs; visiting a bank to determine what a bank does with money and learning the difference between a checking account and a savings account.

The Merchandising Aide Project affords Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts the opportunity to explore the fields of advertising and product marketing. A few of their requirements include: watching for ads that may be misleading, looking for false claims and exaggeration of product merit, or demeaning of people; inviting a manufacturing representative to a troop meeting to find out the steps taken in marketing a product, and inviting an advertising representative to discuss current advertising practices and trends; designing and producing a newspaper ad, or a window display, or a radio commercial to tell people how the Cookie Sale supports Girl Scouting in their community.

Working for the Smart Shopper Badge and the Merchandising Aide Project will teach Girl Scouts how to become better consumers and to learn planning and budgeting techniques for troop activities. Such practice in troop related projects will help them to apply what they learn to the wise management of money in their everyday lives.

SMU GRADUATE SHOWS PHOTOGRAPHIC ART IN LOBBY OF FAIRHAVEN SAVINGS BANK

Photographic art is suddenly "in" - featured on network television, in large city newspapers, accepted by art galleries from Maine to California. As an art form, photography has captured the imagination and interest of many from the earliest days of the camera; but not until very recently has the creative photographer gained stature commensurate with his colleagues who use the more traditional tools of oil paint, acrylics, pastels and etching pen.

Locally, the Fairhaven Savings Bank is currently featuring the photographic artwork of Tom Casey, a popular young exponent of the specialty, who graduated with honors from Southeastern Massachusetts University. A selection of 13 framed pictures may be seen in the lobby of the main office of Fairhaven Savings Bank, 215 Washington Street, Fairhaven.

PASSING OF DR. KRAKOWER

A small black ribbon is draped across the portrait of Abram Krakower, M.D. in the halls of Tobey Hospital. The ribbon marks the loss of one of Tobey's and the area's most beloved physicians.

Word was received that Dr. Krakower died in Florida on October 23 after a long illness. A memorial service to which all are welcome will be held for him in the Bourne Junior High School on Sunday, November 5, at 2:30 P.M.

Dr. Krakower, a native of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, and an honor graduate of its prestigious medical college McGill, came to Bourne in the 1930's. He just completed four years of medical research at the Pratt Diagnostic Clinic in Boston. An internist, he was affiliated with the Cape Cod Hospital and St. Luke's Hospital prior to the opening of Tobey Hospital in 1940. One of the original staff members of Tobey Hospital, he remained active at Tobey until he retired in 1975, then becoming an emeritus staff member.

As a man and a physician, he was beloved

The passing of Dr. Krakower is a loss for all those whose lives he had touched.

"21 CLUB" DONATES CHECK TO TOBEY

The "21 Club" of the Pioneers of America recently donated a check to Tobey Hospital on behalf of its Cape Cod Council. In presenting the check to Warren E. Bishop, Administrator of Tobey, Mr. James Coyle, former manager of New England Telephone's Cataumet and Islands branch, and Mr. David Holden of the Lower Cape division, told of the club's plans to increase the donation to the hospital each year.

The Pioneers of America has a nationwide membership of those who have completed more than 21 years with the telephone company. Some of the many service projects undertaken in this area by the club are the gift of sounding bells to the blind and patient pads for the Rose Hawthorn Hospital.

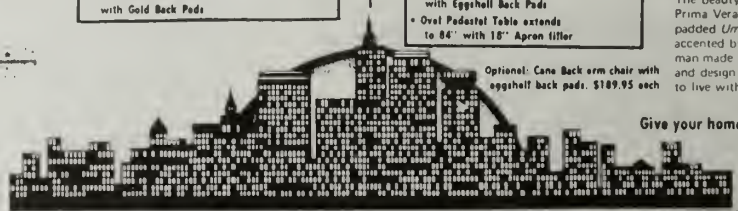
Rendition

lets you be casual with Italian elegance

Casual but not rustic. The flowing lines and powerfully simple ornamentation, deep moldings and soft rounded corners are compatible with traditional as well as contemporary interiors. The beauty of the active grain pattern of rich Prima Vera veneers is intensified by the hand padded Umber finish — a rich fruitwood brown accented by an ivory stripe. And, the ash solids, man made decorative elements provide the strength and design subtlety that makes Rendition as nice to live with as it is to look at

Stanley

Beautiful furniture that stays that way



Optional: Cane Back arm chair with eggshell back pads. $189.95 each
